

04-102—Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Charter Academy regards parental involvement vital to the academic success of students. Parents are the initial teachers of their children and serve as partners with the school in helping their children achieve academic success.

Charter Academy will involve parents in the development of its academic plans.

- The district will invite two parents from to participate in the development of the school plan for at-risk students. Information, including academic data, State and Federal allocations, personnel, and instructional strategies will be given to parent representatives two weeks prior to the meeting for review.
- Parents will review information, attend scheduled meetings and give input into the development of the plan.
- The Board will give final approval of the plan.

Charter Academy will involve parents in the process of school review and improvement.

- Share overall achievement data with parents.
- Invite input from parents regarding school academic goals.
- Discuss scientifically-based research instructional practices.
- Give direction in securing research-based curriculum materials that align with goals.

Charter Academy will provide coordination and technical assistance to promote quality parental involvement activities.

- Twice during the year, school leadership will include parental involvement discussions to maximize coordination and effective use of resources.
- Provide annual training to school administrators and teachers on effective parent involvement strategies.
- Schedule an annual parent involvement seminar to build effective parental involvement strategies.

Charter Academy will coordinate parental involvement strategies with other programs.

- Representatives from other programs will be encouraged to cosponsor the annual parent involvement seminar with Title I.
- Faculty and staff who have responsibility for overseeing parental involvement activities will meet at least twice a year to discuss plans and coordinate efforts.

Charter Academy will conduct an annual parental involvement evaluation.

- In the spring, local School Community Councils will be asked to provide feedback on the quality of involvement opportunities and provide input on how the school might improve support for parental involvement.

- Parents will be encouraged to complete a survey that will elicit feedback on current activities and request input for future efforts.
- At the beginning of the new school year, the school will provide a summary of the parental survey with its plans to address identified needs and recommendations.

Charter Academy will involve parents in a variety of school activities.

- The director will report annually on parental involvement in at-risk and other programs.
- In the annual training for administrators and teachers, the school will share identified successful parental involvement activities with volunteer committees.
- The Director will annually report to the board how used Title I funds were used to support effective parent involvement strategies.